RESOLUTION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 105 of the Government of India Act, the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the majority of members at a meeting of the Council of India, held on the 26th day of November 1927, hereby makes the following rules under the said section to regulate the administration of the pay of officers of a Provisional Police Service promoted to the Indian Police Service or to officials in posts borne on the scale of that Service:—

1. In these rules:—

(a) "Provisional Service" means a Provisional Police Service.

(b) "Promoted officer" includes—

(i) an officer promoted from a Provisional Service to the Indian Police Service, and

(ii) an officer of a Provisional Service officiating in a post borne on the scale of the Indian Police Service.

(3) "Actual pay" means the pay to which an officer of the Provisional Service is entitled under the time scale in the selection grade of the Provisional Service, as the same may be, by virtue of his substantive position in the scale of that Service.

(4) "Assumed pay" means the pay which an officer in the selection grade of a Provisional Service would be drawing under the time scale of that Service, if he had not been promoted to the selection grade.

(5) "Senior time-scale" and "junior time-scale" mean the junior time-scale and senior time-scale, respectively, of the Indian Police Service.

2. (a) The initial basic pay of a promoted officer appointed in a post on the junior time-scale shall, on each occasion of his promotion, be fixed on the junior time-scale in the stage next above his actual pay, if he is not in the selection grade, or his assumed pay if he is in that grade, or if his actual or assumed pay, as the case may be, is equal to, or higher than, the maximum of the junior time-scale, then at the maximum of that scale; the initial basic pay of a promoted officer appointed in a post on the senior time-scale shall, on each occasion of such promotion, be fixed on the stage of the senior time-scale at which it would have been fixed under the rate of the officer had been appointed in a post on that time-scale; and in either case he shall draw differential increments on the inferior or superior scale until he reaches the scale to which he is promoted.

Provided that the basic pay of such an officer as so entitled shall not on any occasion be pay which he would be drawing under the junior or senior time-scale, as the case may be, if he had accreted to the Provisional Service together with one-half of his accumulated increment, or, if any, had been accreted to the Indian Police Service.

(b) If and so long as the basic pay of a promoted officer as entitled in clause (a) is less than his actual pay as at the date of his promotion he shall draw assumed pay equal to the amount of the deficiency.

(c) If and so long as the basic pay together with any personal pay under clause (b) of a promoted officer holding a post on the senior time-scale does not exceed his actual pay as at the date of his promotion by Rs. 175 a month, he shall, subject to the limit laid down in the proviso to clause (b), draw assumed pay equal to the amount of the deficiency.

(d) If and so long as the pay, as calculated under the previous clauses of this rule, of a promoted officer who has previously officiated in a post borne on the scale of the Indian Police Service is less than the pay which he drew when last officiating, he shall draw assumed pay equal to the amount of the deficiency.

3. If the actual or assumed pay of a promoted officer is enhanced while he is officiating in a post borne on the scale of the Indian Police Service, his pay shall be increased in accordance with such rule as though he had been promoted on the date of enhancement.

4. Increment of pay as the time-scale of the Indian Police Service shall be granted to a promoted officer only on completion of a full year's service at any stage of that scale, but for the purpose of entitling one year's service as a ground of pay, longer periods of officiating service at that rate shall be taken into account.

5. These rules shall apply to all officers promoted after the 31st day of December 1927, but officers promoted prior to that date may elect to have their pay revised in accordance with these rules with effect from the 31st day of December 1927.

SCHEDULE C.

Specifications of the railway track for 2 feet 6 inches gauge rolling stock.

The rail.—This will consist of an upper renewable wearing bar and a lower permanent bearing bar. The wearing bar will be formed of the new British standard unequal angle No 3, three-eighths of an inch thick, and weighing 42 lb. to the foot. The bearing bar will be formed of the new British standard unequal angle No 3, one-quarter of an inch thick, and weighing 40 lb. to the foot. Thus the total weight of the double angle-bar rail will be 82 lb. to the foot, or 95 lb. to the yard.

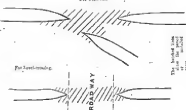

3. The girdle plate.—Will be formed of a 7½ inch length of a 2½ inch x ½ inch steel bar, not as folded as shown in the drawing—to grip across the angle-bar rails at every joint in them, which latter must be so staggered and broken that not more than one-quarter of the track rails are cut through at any joint.

4. The steel bar.—Will be formed of new British standard equal angle No 4, three-eighths of an inch thick, and weighing 14 lb. to the foot. At each end of the steel bar, the lower flange will be cut and bent down so as to form a tub or fit into the slots cut in the girdle plates to which they connect.

5. The track.—Will be laid on a foundation of rolled or rammed stone ballast, 1 foot wide under each rail, and of a depth depending on the nature of the ground. The space between the two angle-bar rails will be also filled up with tightly packed sand and wash.

6. As the wheels are flanged, and the rail-aster locomotives will have road-running power, no points and crossings and no sidings are required. At all turn-outs, and also at all road-hewings, the ordinary track will be replaced by a short length of ordinary hard metalled road pavement, about 8 feet wide at each track end, and, to ensure engaging the right track, the angle-bar rails of the track will be connected together to form a nose or point track—

For Turn-out.

6. As the paved gaps at turn-outs and level-crossings will not exceed half a train length, it must be so laid out that the trains will always be on the regular track.

7. The minimum width of bank or cutting at the limit of the rail will be 10 feet. Where the roadway is laid on the basis of the road the bank will be widened where necessary to conform to this direction.

8. Bridges will be built to designs previously approved by Government. Older bridges are to have substantial decking for a width of 5 feet at rail level on each side measured from the centre of track and will be provided with suitable chord rails.

Secretary to Government.

It is further reported that the government action has been ignored, and that the temple was not properly cared for. The Government of India has been notified in the year 1924, is situated in the village of Tirumalepalli, in the district of Bangalore, that the last few years there has been neither proper care nor honor, and that the temple was closed and worship discontinued for three months of about two years past. No. 204 - The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments brings to the notice of Government that the temple of Sri Bhayonaraswari situated at Bhayonaraswari, Mangalore taluk, West Godavari district, the annual festival of which takes place from 19-20 July every year, was celebrated in 1976 by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act 1965 as managed, and that the temple is of other descent. It is reported that due activities are now properly looking after the affairs of the temple, one of them having based on the temple lands for a long period as a school, and that the temple is open to all persons who visit it, thereby rendering it a popular place of religious activities. In view of the above facts, the Commission under the Board accordingly requests the Government to apply to the temple all the provisions of the Act excepted under (B) relating to the levy of contribution towards the expenses of the Board. To avoid reading a restriction among the provision of the Act, the Government may consider the time required for the temple authorities to take action on the subject and if no objection is raised by the temple has any objection to organize such applications. If no valid objection is received by Government within a month from the date of publication of the notification in the District Gazette, the Government will have to implement the provisions of the Act.

The Commission also suggests that the provisions of the Act shall not apply to the temple.

COTTON CROP OF 1943-44—FIFTH ON FINAL
NOV-20-44

[On an average of the five years ending 1915-16, the area under cotton in the Madras Presidency has represented 57.5 per cent of the total area under cotton in India.]

The area sown with cotton in the Madras Presidency in 1927-28 is estimated at 1,678,430 acres against 1,596,580 acres in the February forecast report. The main increases were in Tanjore (35,000 acres) and Kamrood (24,000 acres).

The present estimate for the Presidency represents a reduction of about seven per cent from the total area of 2,231,108 acres in 1913-15.

2. Planning of action is in progress throughout the Presidency and will be finished by the end of the month.

The style is up to the usual standard.

The sides of the feet pickings were dull in parts of the mouth owing to the rain, which fell after the feet had been secured.

⁴2. Normal yields are expected only in Ontario and Quebec. The crop has been affected by drought to some extent in most of the other important districts.

The seasonal factor for the Presidency works out to 94 per cent of the average as against 85 per cent last year. On this basis, the yield works out at 431,508 bales of lint against 348,360 bales in the previous year, an increase of about nine per cent and a small increase of 482,000 bales.

4. The estimated area and yield under the several varieties are given below:
